1. [] advised the Director had talked with George Mahon the night before concerning a possible restricted technical briefing of Minshall and Lipscomb on the U-2 photographs. It had been agreed that this would not be done and Mr. Mahon was to discuss this with Minshall and Lipscomb. Apparently the Director did offer to give the CIA Subcommittee a full briefing and Mr. Mahon felt this might be desirable and would call on General Cabell during the Director's absence if this was desired. 25X1A

The above was communicated to []

2. [] Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel for the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called to say that Senator Thomas Dodd has an idea that he would like the Subcommittee to conduct a series of hearings on Soviet murders, suicides, kidnappings, etc. Sourwine read me a list of twenty possible witnesses drawn up by the Subcommittee staff and asked if we would review the list and indicate whether we might suggest the names of other individuals who would be good witnesses in such hearings. This was taken up with SR, CI Staff, CDC and OO and Sourwine was given the additional names of []

25X1X

Sourwine was most appreciative of this information.
